7. WHO ARE YOU?

7.1 Tell us about yourself and your family.

7.2 How do you see your future ambitions contributing towards the Namibia that you want to see in the next 10 years? Outline some of the things you plan to do and how you would carry them out.
(Please limit your response to no more than 300 words.)

7.3 What informed your decision to study towards your chosen degree? Why did you choose the degree? What steps did you take to inform your decision? What helped shape your final decision? What do you think you will enjoy about your chosen field/career and which areas do you think you may find challenging?

7.4 What are your three top strengths and your three development areas? List them and give an example for each. How did these strengths and development areas inform your decision in selecting your chosen field of study?

7.7 Values can be defined as a person’s principles or standards of behaviour; one’s judgment of what is important in life.

- Tell us about your personal values and explain why you have chosen these values for yourself.
- Why are these specific values most important to you?
- Include examples of how you live your values and how your values have guided the decisions you have made.

7.8 According to research, profit and non-profit ideas are born from the daily experiences of individuals and their ability to identify inefficiencies and challenges.

- With this in mind, list three ideas that you have that could be turned into viable business opportunities (business could be for profit or not for profit).
- Which of your ideas to create viable business opportunities would you say is your best idea and explain why you selected this idea over the others?

7.9 Tell us about an initiative, activity or project that you personally started in the last five years or played a key or significant role in.

- What were your reasons for starting this initiative/activity/project?
- What did you have to do to get the initiative/activity/project off the ground and running successfully?
- List as many reasons as possible as to why this initiative would not have been successful without you?
How were you personally key to the success of this initiative?
- Name some of the problems you encountered and explain how you personally went about solving these problems
- What were some of the most important decisions you had to make?
- How did you ensure that you made the right decisions? Who assisted you in making the decisions?

7.10 The Foundation defines high-impact responsible entrepreneurs as individuals of passion, excellence and innovation, who will be at the forefront of the continuing economic and social transformation. These individuals will be ambassadors of the power of initiative, determination and ethics; acting as role models for many more to follow in their pioneering footsteps.

- What are the skills you think you will need in order to become a high-impact responsible entrepreneur and what have you done to develop these skills to date, or what opportunities do you think you would require in the future to develop these skills?

7.11 Describe a past situation in which you found it difficult to achieve one of your goals.

- What was the goal?
- Why was it challenging?
- What obstacles did you have to overcome and how did you deal with them?
- Did you achieve your goal?

7.12 What has been the most challenging and stressful situation that you have ever had to deal with?

- What was the situation?
- Why did you find it stressful?
- What actions did you take to deal with the situation?
- What did you learn from this experience?
- Tell us how you have applied or are applying this learning in other situations.

7.13 How are you demonstrating excellence in other areas of your life outside your academic achievements?
What actions/steps did you take to achieve this excellence? How has your excellence been recognised?

8. HIGH IMPACT LEADERS AND ENTREPRENEURS

The mission of the Allan Gray Orbis Foundation is to promote progress through entrepreneurship in an integrated Southern Africa by fostering high-impact responsible entrepreneurs. The Foundation is looking for individuals with an entrepreneurial mindset who have the potential to become high-impact responsible entrepreneurs.

The Foundation believes that all high-impact responsible entrepreneurs are leaders. Below are two definitions that will assist you in completing the questions below.

A high-impact entrepreneur:

is a principled individual that creates and/or personally owns all or part of an enterprise that offers a product, service or business model that is highly innovative, differentiated and scalable which results in adding substantial economic value through offering the public great value for money and doing so, results in the creation of meaningful jobs, profitable enterprise and stakeholder value.

A high-impact leader:

is a principled individual that leads an organisation and/or makes a contribution in a field in a manner that is highly interactive, differentiated and scalable.

This question is in two parts:

8.1 Think of a situation where you demonstrated leadership abilities in your school or community.

- What was the situation?
- How did you demonstrate leadership?
- Describe some of the key actions and how you took them.
- What was the outcome/impact of your leadership?
- How has this been recognised?

The Allan Gray Orbis Foundation's Five Pillars

The Allan Gray Orbis Foundation is looking to support individuals who demonstrate the following characteristics as they pursue their entrepreneurial endeavour:

Spirit of Significance	A weight of personality that comes from living a life personified by passion and integrity. Recognition that ultimate personal satisfaction comes from empowering oneself in order that one might be able to serve others.
Achievement Excellence	The on-going pursuit of excellence with a tangible and specific focus on setting goals. A motivation to make a difference and leave a mark. To be bold, not looking back, but pressing forward in the pursuit of one's goals.
Intellectual Imagination	An enquiring and active mind demonstrated by an established record of intellectual achievement. An ability to see the unseen, challenge the status quo and suggest that things could be done differently to create new opportunities.
Personal Initiative	A person that makes things happen and celebrates the satisfaction of bringing new things into being. Independent, proactive and self starting. A person who is willing and able to make their own decisions.
Courageous Commitment	The courage and dedication to continue, realising that applying consistent commitment has a way of overcoming.

Having read the application criteria (Five Pillars) above, I recommend this applicant for the Allan Gray Fellowship because:
