Commonwealth PhD Scholarships (for low and middle income countries) 2018 selection criteria

	ACADEMIC MERIT	QUALITY OF RESEARCH PROPOSAL	DEVELOPMENT IMPACT
Grading criteria	 Primary indicators Examination results Academic transcripts Tutors and referees' reports Secondary indicators Academic prizes or awards Other relevant academic achievements Publications, where appropriate 	 Primary indicators Clear abstract of what the candidate wants to research Extent to which the work programme has been well researched, and the extent of engagement with the host supervisor Quality of the research proposal, including innovation and relevance to current research in the chosen field Secondary indicators Clarity of expression Feasibility of proposed research Likelihood of completion within three years 	 Primary indicators Extent of the need: how the plan of research relates to development in the sector and country (and institution, in the case of university nominations) Expected outcomes and the projected timeframe leading to applied development The way and extent to which the candidate proposes to apply their new skills and qualifications Secondary indicators Reference to a national development priority, capacity shortage, or objective Reference to the selected CSC theme Extent of the benefit: how the impact of the potential benefits of the work might be measured (e.g. a typical beneficiary from the research described, or potential number of beneficiaries from the research) Past commitment to 'development' agendas through voluntary work, or leading or participating in relevant projects or programmes